Stories Over Time

This half term our main foundation subject focus is spread over: Religious Education and History. In Religious Education, we will be learning about aspects of both Christianity and Hinduism. We will explore important religious stories as well performing our own Nativity for all our friends and families. In History we will be learning about the historical story of the Gunpowder plot. We will also be looking at traditional tales and storytelling in our Literacy lessons.

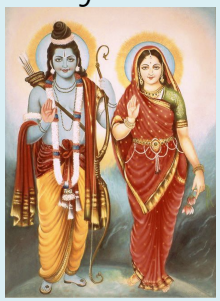

Important people:

Guy Fawkes

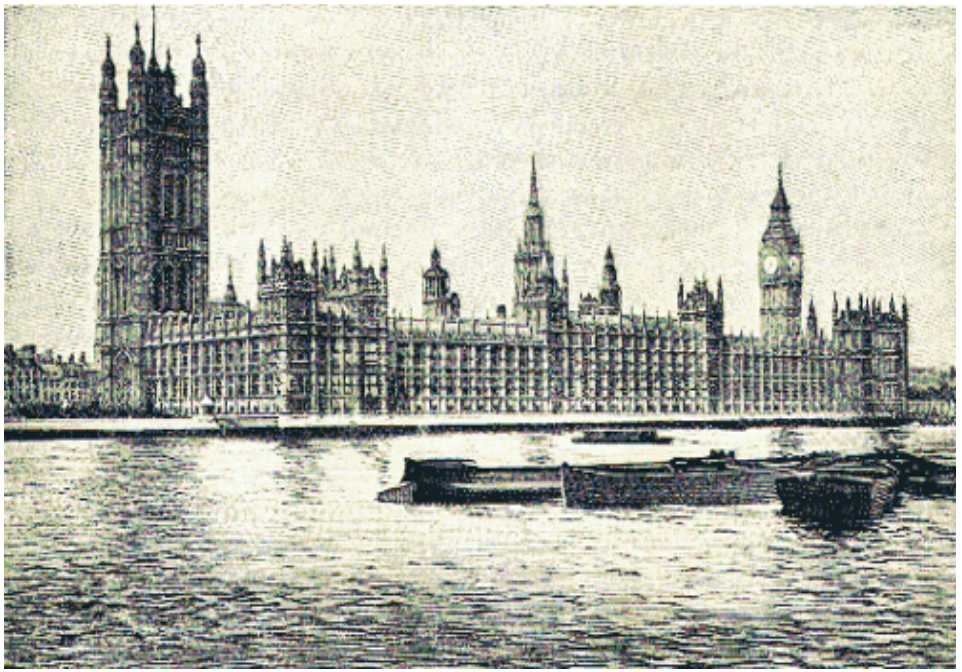

King James

Rama and Sita

Guiding Questions:

* How do stories change over time?
* Why is storytelling so important?
* What religious stories can you retell?
* What historical stories can you retell?
* Why are different stories important to different people?

Houses of Parliament

Important Vocabulary:

Catholic – Someone who follows Catholicism, a branch of Christianity.

Protestant – someone who follows any branch of Christianity that is not Catholicism.

Gunpowder – a highly explosive powder used in fireworks.

Treason – the crime of betraying your country by attempting to kill or killing a Monarch.

Parliament - an assembly of people who make the laws for the country.

Monarch - a King, Queen and/or Emperor.

Loyalty – A strong feeling of support for a person, group or thing.

Hinduism – An ancient religion and way of life that is mostly practiced in South Asia.

Diya – A small oil lamp.

Diwali – A Hindu festival of lights.